Noel Coward Comedy, 'Blithe Spirit,' To Be Produced By The Footlighters

Noel Coward's hilarious comedy about the wife who returns from hereafter to interfere with her husband's amorous interests will provide a delightful inauguration of the Campbell Footlighters' theatrical season.

The comedy, "Blithe Spirit" was selected by the thespians at their meeting Tuesday night at the Lester Ackerman home on Esther Avenue. President Irene Hodges conducted the business of the evening.

NEW DIRECTOR

Miss Marian Jacobson, new director for the Footlighters, was introduced. The San Jose State College graduate who replaced Dean Chamberlin, now on duty with the armed forces, has also attended Stanford University and Mills College. She is now on the staff of Los Gatos High School where she teaches public speaking and dancing.

Miss Jacobson has had extensive experience in both theatrical direction and makeup. She is a graduate of both Campbell Elementary School and high school.

"Blithe Spirit" will be presented December 1 at the Campbell high school auditorium and will be sponsored by the Campbell Union School District orchestra to raise funds for needed school orchestra instruments.

The play was chosen after Alma Fanning had presented reviews of several plays for the consideration of the 22 members present.

TRYOUTS

Casting tryouts will be conducted next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Price barn on Dry Creek Road. Everyone interested in either obtaining a part in the play or in helping with the backstage work is invited to be on hand for the tryouts.

Richard Gordon of the Campbell School District staff is cooperating with the Footlighters in arrangements for the production.

Community Meeting On Cherry Tree Planting Project Called October 31

Campbell Garden Club's proposal for beautifying Campbell by planting flowering cherry trees will be outlined at a community meeting called for Thursday, October 31, at 8 p.m. in the Campbell High School Little Theatre.

The public is invited to attend the session. The Garden Club will donate 100 of the Kwanzan cherry trees to be planted along Campbell streets.

Mrs. G. Denny Wilson, chairman of the club project, outlined plans for the meeting at the club's regular session and Guest Tea Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. D. Cantoni and Mrs. Edward Kollmer were tea hostesses. A hand-crocheted table cloth covered the table which was decorated with arrangements of fall fruits and candles. Mrs. Ray Prince, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Wilson.

Leslie Olson of San Jose showed a color film of the cherry trees in full bloom at Washington, D.C. Members interested in attending the chrysanthemum show to be given October 26 and 27 by the Berkeley Garden Club should get in touch with Mrs. Henry Parysek.

At the October 18 meeting there will be a roundtable discussion of the fall chrysanthemum show which the Campbell Garden Club will sponsor on Wednesday, November 1 at the Country Women's clubhouse.

The public is invited to exhibit chrysanthemums in the show which is open to the public without charge. Mrs. Felix Bersano and Mrs. Mitchell Lobrovich are the show chairmen.

Police District Petition Signers Being Sought

Campbell Police Protection District moved a step closer to realization this week as American Legion Patrol members began circulating petitions calling for establishment of the police district.

Spokesman said that while the petitions must have signatures of 50 taxpayers of the proposed police district, they expect to have a couple of hundred by the time the petition drive ends this weekend.

Figures released by the County Assessor's office showed the area to have an assessed valuation of $11,367,860 as of the close of the last assessment rolls. This includes $10,206,370 on the county assessment roll and $1,161,490 on the public utility roll.

The establishment and maintenance of the district may be financed under the law through a tax rate of not more than one-half of one percent of the assessed valuation of the district. "We may not require that maximum rate," the spokesman said, since the district's size as established by the county boundary commission in August, provides a substantial financial base for a moderate rate.

Petition signatures will be checked by the office of the registrar of voters, after which the petitions will be submitted to the County Board of Supervisors who will fix time and place for public hearings on the matter. The time must be not less than 25 days or more than 35 days after presentation of petitions.

Blood Bank Day On VFW Agenda

Arrangements for Veterans' Day at the county blood bank on October 20 will be outlined by a representative of the United Veterans Council this evening at the regular business meeting of Lt. Byron C. Lanphear Post 6305, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A large attendance is expected at the session in the library building when important matters and future projects will be discussed. Plans for the mass initiation to be held soon by the post, together with the 1951 membership drive plans will be discussed.

At the previous meeting, the building committee reported slow but steady progress and predicted that zoning and building ordinance difficulties will be overcome within the near future.

Auxiliary members reported the food sale on September 23 was a success. The unit will also convene tonight.

Commander Alfred L. Lord of the post, and President Ona Chubb of the auxiliary have issued a special invitation to all members to attend tonight's meeting.

Cambrian Pupils In Sixth Grade Will Go To Camp

Cambrian sixth grade students will attend "school" in the YMCA Camp Campbell in the Santa Cruz mountains October 9 through 13. Students from Almaden will also be there.

These two schools are among several participating in a Santa Clara County educational program started this year. It has been carried through successfully in San Diego County and in several other California counties.

The program will provide the opportunity each year for sixth grade students to attend the camp as part of their regular curriculum. At Cambrian those students who are unable to earn the $11.50 necessary are eligible for "campsips" offered by the Home and School Club, Cambrian Men's Club and the Cambrian School.

Students attending the camp from Cambrian this year will be Juanita Alford, Gail Beatty, Gaynor Benson, Sandra Button, Lewis Cabral, Marilyn Coffelt, Blane Davis, Dianne Delamore, Ronald Dohoney, Richard Edsinger, Mary Alice Erwin, Roger Flagg, Donald Goodman, Larry Heald, Billy Irons, Sharon Long, Paulette McDonnell, Rita Mastrotietro, Carol Merrell, Peter Nutting, Doldras Palladino, Billy Ann Pedemonte, Robert Teletaire, Yvonne Remily, Donald Smith, Lee Smith, and Fred Tashiro. Mrs. Lee Stronach, sixth grade teacher, will accompany the group as school director.

Regular classroom studies will be continued and in addition the students will study nature. A musical and recreational program will also be provided. Short trips will be taken, including one to Big Basin.

Pupils will be housed in cabins in groups of seven to ten youngsters. There will be a counselor for each group. Counselors will be senior education students of San Jose and San Francisco State Colleges.

Ellwood Mitchell, county supervisor of physical education and recreation, will be the camp director. Assisting in planning the project were Dr. Verne Landreth of the State Department of Education, and Dr. Carl Duncan, head of San Jose State College Science Department.

Commercial Zone Requested For Winchester Road

Hearings will be held October 18 and November 15 by the County Planning commission on a proposal to reclassify property on the western side of Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road between W. Parr Avenue and Chapman Drive.

The property in question, lots 23 to 30 of Farview Tract, would be rezoned from residential to light commercial use if the commission approves.

Klassen Calls For All-Out Effort To Wind Up Drive By Next Week

Community Service fund workers moved a little closer to their drive quota of $11,639.80 this week, with a total collection of $3,000.00. More has been subscribed, but the reports for the various districts are still incomplete.

Workers will make a concerted effort to wind up the drive in the next week. "Reports thus far from several captains for the house to house canvass are very good," C. P. Klassen, drive manager, has stated. "This week each worker should endeavor to cover his territory."

"We hope that the workers will call the second time where people are not home, and if anyone is overlooked this should be made known to the drive manager. Major part of the drive will be completed this week. Next week the workers will call back to the places where people were not at home."

"Contributions from the business firms amounted to about $2500 and it is gratifying to see the business people support our local enterprise," commented Klassen. He urged residents to receive the workers courteously and to be generous in their contributions.

Drive publicity chairman George Kemp said workers in the Cambrian area reported they had been particularly well received and he expressed appreciation for the cooperative attitude of the residents.

Margaret Jackson's application for a use permit to maintain a boarding home for aged persons was granted subject to several conditions. Use is limited to five persons at the Stevens Creek Road property between Henry and Ardis Avenue. The permit is to be issued for a term of three years after which Mrs. Jackson may apply for renewal. Premises must be inspected and approved by both the Central Fire District chief and the county building inspector.

Permission to construct a second dwelling on a lot in an A-1 zone on the west side of Ham Avenue north of El Camino Real was granted Alfio Pennise.

Second public hearing on petition of W. B. Melone and L. F. Hoffman for commercial zoning on the southwest corner of the Saratoga Avenue-Prospect Road intersection was set for November 1. The two men plan to erect a service station and nursery on part of the eight-acre tract. Balance would be reserved for homesites.

Bartender Has No Definite Plans For High-Priced Campbell Ave. Site

High bid of $11,500 for the Campbell firehouse and property on Campbell Avenue was accepted by the district commissioners at their meeting Tuesday night. The successful bidder is Miss Thelma Kern, 501 Willow Street, San Jose, who is buying the property as agent for Murray Martin, bartender at Court's Cabins on San Jose-Los Gatos Road.

Chamber Officials Seek More Active Board Members

Non-participating directors who have been neglecting their duties by failing to attend Campbell Chamber of Commerce meetings received a blast this week from Chamber President Eugene W. Barnes and Secretary-manager Forrest Reese.

Barnes cited the directorial session of last Monday when a quorum of directors failed to show, and the meeting was held up for over an hour while the more diligent directors rounded up their fellows.

"If these men aren't sufficiently interested in their community to attend the meetings, then we'll have to appoint other members who are more civic minded," Barnes commented. "We will canvass the present board to determine whether the members plan to attend meetings and function as directors. If they don't plan to, there are others who will."

Poor attendance at this week's meeting was particularly humiliating since the Chamber has invited each Campbell organization to send a representative to participate in the meetings. "There were such representatives present, but there was NO quorum of directors until we took time out to round up the men."

GENERAL SESSION

First general Chamber of Commerce meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, October 18, at 8 p.m. in the Country Women's clubhouse. All directors, members and interested parties are urged to attend. Next board meeting will be held November 6.

Leonard Cronkite, PG&E engineer, is to be invited to prepare estimates of cost to install street lights on Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road on the sides not presently lighted, thus providing a complete "white way" through the central section of the community.

Reese announced that the chamber is now in possession of the film, "Life in Campbell" which may be borrowed without charge by any group. To obtain it contact Reese at Campbell 3442.

During the directors' meeting, a letter of resignation from Homer Hyde was read and accepted. Tom Burnett was appointed to the board to replace Hyde.

Traffic Fines Totalled $121 For September

Justice of the Peace Martin S. Walsh collected traffic fines totaling $121 for the month of September, of which $23 were for over-parking charges.

Fines of $25 each were assessed against two reckless drivers; three other drivers paid $5 each for the dubious privilege of parking beside fire plugs, and one speeder was fined $10.

In addition, two persons were fined $10 each for disturbing the peace.

Judge Walsh's office reported a marked decrease in the number of traffic tags this month. Fining of speeders and parking violators has evidently had a gratifying educational effect.

SHOPPING NIGHT

Mary Vintro, 66 N. Third street, Campbell won first prize in last week's Friday Shopping Night awards. Second prize went to Mrs. C. N. McCoy, 69 N. Second street, and third to F. Armenta, 34 Smith avenue.

Merchants in the weekly shopping event will remain open again until 9 o'clock tonight. Merchandise order awards winners will be selected at 9:15 at the J&A Food Mart.

Martin told the Campbell Press he has no immediate plans for the property since the fire district has a six months' lease on the property subject to six months' renewal. "Anything can happen in a year. That's a long time," he commented. "I do not contemplate a bar for the property at the present time" replied Martin when asked if he knew about deed restrictions on the land. Asked if he had definite plans for a hard drink stand at the place in the future, he couched his reply in vague terms, saying, "No bar for an indefinite period."

Martin said he knew about the deed restrictions but had not contemplated taking legal action to have them removed, at least until the present time.

In the deed from S. G. Rodeck to Benjamin Campbell, dated May 7, 1890, the conditions were as follows, in part: "... if the said second party, his heirs or assigns shall at any time sell or keep for sale upon any portion of said premises or knowingly permit any person under them to sell or keep for sale any spirituous or intoxicating liquors, either distilled or fermented, the entire title and estate in and to said premises created shall cease and the title to said premises shall thereupon at once revert to and vest in said first party, his heirs or assigns forever, and it shall be lawful for the said first party, his heirs or assigns, to enter upon said premises and eject said second party, his heirs or assigns and every person claiming under them or either of them." Other similarly restricted local property is occupied by a bar and a package liquor house.

The bartender said the property is not for sale even though "I'm just about broke."

Two other bids were received by the commissioners, for $9,000 and $8,975. These were submitted by B. B. Botts of Botts Garage and Mario Saia, local meat department operator.

Miss Kern and other bidders were present at the bid opening and she raised her original bid from $10,365 to $11,500, when another bidder upped his written bid by five percent.

Local businessmen estimated that the property brought the highest price for Campbell in their knowledge, since the 34x60 feet site sold for approximately $335 per front foot.

E. C. Merrill, fire commissioner, announced plans to build the new firehouse on Central avenue will be ready in about a month. Board members hope to select an architect or view possible plans for the future structure at their meeting Monday night. Applications from several architects have already been received.

Sale of the present firehouse site, considerable in excess of the $3,000 minimum which the board would have considered, plus sale of the old residence on the Central avenue site for $175 will provide a substantial sum toward construction of the new firehall, said Merrill. The $11,675 will obviate any need for additional expense to the district this year, though a slight budget increase may be necessary to complete construction of the project next year.

Meanwhile, the fire district in its sale contract for the Campbell Avenue property, has retained a six-months lease for $10, with privilege of renewing it for another six months at $45 a month rental. Thus the fire fighting equipment will be assured adequate housing pending completion of the new structure.

SEVERO MARKET TO BE ABANDONED PENDING RECEIPT OF LEGAL APPROVAL

A letter from Antonio and Theresa Severo to the Santa Clara County Planning Commission may pave the way for the Severos to go through legal channels to obtain permission to reopen their market on Winchester Road.

The Severos have been on the commission's blacklist during the past year and a half due to various violations of building and zoning ordinances. Mr. and Mrs. Severo got off on the wrong foot when Severo, according to the commission, started construction of a commercial building on the west side of a Winchester Road opposite the Casey Road intersection.

Severo reportedly failed to obtain either a building permit or official sanction of the commercial use in a residential zone. At the instigation of the planning commission a building inspector was dispatched to the scene, and the Severos were soon after advised to halt their construction.

Severo did—for a while—then resumed operations, according to the commission, in violation of building ordinance, zoning ordinance and the Planning Commission's order to halt.

Shortly thereafter, Severo, accompanied by his attorney, met with a commission representative and an assistant district attorney. Severo was advised that he must use his building for residential purposes and not for a market, but that he might use one front corner room for retail of agricultural products of the premises only. Severo began operations but soon began to expand and to buy other produce on the outside, extending his home market to a commercial enterprise.

Again the commission investigated. The Severos' commercial activities were recorded on film by the official county photographer, and with the evidence, the commission determined that Severo was again violating the law.

At the commission's September meeting, Director-Secretary Nestor Barrett presented the facts and the commission moved that the Board of Supervisors be asked to issue an order to begin abatement proceedings against the Severos.

Severo learned of the commission's decision and within a day or so, a friend of his called on the commission staff to obtain confirmation of the report. He was told the commission was determined to have no more hedging from the Severos.

In turn the friend proposed that the Severos would discontinue the zone use violation and take steps to go through regular legal channels to obtain permission to reopen the market.

The Severo letter received Wednesday by the commission confirmed the friend's proposal, and stated he would "abandon" the business as of October 2 and until such time as BOTTOMS UP — Before a man can boast proudly of a new paint job on his home he must first afford a pleasant, solid house. And before the house is attractively erected, a competent, thorough contractor must be hired.

Such is the case at Campbell high school where a collection of green, inexperienced boys form the varsity football eleven. The lads, through no fault of their own are as green as a patch of Walla Walla peas nestling in a bed of shamrocks.

If Coach Jim Muir ever molds a winning aggregation out of his sophomores and juniors the credit will belong solely to him and his staff.

Last Saturday's game against Lincoln high will bear us out, so far as Walla is concerned.

The end play in the first half was acceptable with Saul Estrada and John Hoover performing creditably. But once they were removed through injuries Muir was stymied for seasoned replacements. In fact during the second half Muir became so desperate for formidable flankers that he used several guards and centers at the end positions.

Another prime fault of the unsavvy squad was the unorganized line play. Not to mention the line backers. The line itself was not charging as a unit, a very vital factor in successful line maneuvering. The secondary, close up, was consistently sucked out of position, allowing quick openers over the middle. The long TD's will testify to that.

Only game experience alone will rub the greenness off the Bucs and mold them into a winning team. In practice sessions they are well-versed in the fundamentals of the game. But Coach Muir or Coach Morgan and Miskulin can't exactly run on the field every play and show them and remind them of their mistakes. Evidently experience is not the best but the only teacher when it comes to football games. But for sure.

All was not dark following the Lincoln tussle. Muir has a few, oh so few, players claiming experience and know-how.

The outstanding player on the field, in our unbiased opinion, was Bob Saia, hard-running halfback. He took second place to none, including the highly-touted Jim Unger and mate, Sam Bruno. True, Unger is terrific with Bruno his equal, at least Saturday eve.

But considering the blocking help and minute holes opened in the line, Saia proved his mettle. If he keeps up his elusive running tactics he is assured of All-SCVAL mention.

Other men singled out for capable performances are Andre David, burly tackle, and Bill West, neophyte guard. If the other line-men learn as quickly as West, the outlook will brighten considerably.

OPPOSITE EXTREMES — Usually a hunter or group of hunters will return home full of excuses after a day of fruitless pursuit of the elusive buck. So when one hears about a group of nimrods deliberately ceasing to kill deer, the tale is more tantalizing.

According to Voiney Garner of Campbell, he experienced such a fantasy. This is his yarn, we assure you. We are just relating for what it is worth.

During the deer season, Garner and a party of six packed into the rugged mountain country in Alpine county, near Dardenells. They hiked four miles inward from the road. Within an hour they bagged three bucks ranging from 140 to 180 lbs. Deer galore were to be had out the wiser hunters prevailed. Being such rough terrain, the group could not pack out more than three deer. So, wisely, but not eagerly, they had to leave.

Garner would not reveal the exact location of this hunters' paradise. We wonder why?

POST MORTEM MEMOS — The players in the Kiwanis-Rotary softball game held recently at the local diamond suffered additional shock and consternation at their respective weekly meetings.

It is bad enough when the more fragile and ancient gadabouts have to suffer from sundry bruises and injuries, let alone pay for their diamond prowess.

No lie, in this world of topsyturvy economy and backhanded congratulations, the bigwigs of the two service clubs make and take the cake.

Every player was fined according to his praiseworthy performance. In other words if Joe Bloo hit seven homers and stole 35 bases he would be allowed the privilege of paying a fine for achievement. Egads, a team of Joe DiMaggio would burst the general funds bank within two frames.

Cel Gerevas, chairman of the softball sortie for the Rotarians, handed out the sentences. With untold pomp and glory, he was permitted to contribute a sum of $1 to the kitty. What expensive milk the feline must drink.

Other fines ranged from two-bits to half a buck.

Some of the reserves who did for nothing for alma-mammy were not forgotten. They were allowed to give token fines of ten cents. Thus all concerned considered themselves as "the" star of the game.

In fact one individual made five consecutive errors that seemingly hindered his chance of becoming a star. But he was eternally grateful when the bored board allowed him to pan out cents per boot.

Try as they did the committee for the allocation of revenue could not find anything commendable about a certain player's ability. He did for nothing, for sure. To mention his name would mean mass revolution. The masses against an individual, namely me.

It all turned out satisfactorily for all persons concerned. Said person was permitted to contribute one tarnished button off his middle sleeve of his third arm. They called him "octopus" until he cavorted about the field. He is now known by another name or names.

In the Kiwanis camp a similar setup prevailed with minor adjustments.

The players weren't allowed the honor of "giving." Instead, absent members' lucky stiffs were afforded that privilege.

Milt Nelson was selected as the No. 1 player for the Katzenkitts. Judge Martin Walsh paid for the two homers Nelson collected.

Evidently the strict Kiwanians give and ask no favor and expect their members to be as loyal and doubtless.

Fred Jones was forced (with a capital F) to cough up some dinero because his son had the audacity to play for the opposing team. Jones senior was probably compensated when he met his offspring.

Despite the fact that he was honored as big stick, Nelson was as (Continued on Page 8)

Softball Champs Receive Trophy At Team Picnic

Campbell Grammar team, winners of the Campbell Jr. Softball league this summer, was honored at a steak barbecue late last month.

Held at Alum Rock park, the out-doors repast was made possible through the generosity of the loop's sponsors. They combined to provide the many steaks, salads, and soft drinks.

Also feted were the Kiwanis team, runner-ups to the Campbellites.

Highlight of the day-long program was the presentation of the victory trophy. Team Captain Bob Hill accepted the award from Junior Morgan, league director.

Pictured above is Wayne Buck, former Campbell high backfield star, now playing under Bob Bronzan at San Jose State. Buck sustained a dislocated wrist in the season's opener against Stanford. Spartan physicians believe he will be ready for action within three weeks.

Grammar Safety Patrol Attends Athletic Contest

Approximately 15 students of the Campbell Grammar school attended last week's football game at Spartan stadium through the courtesy of the college.

The students were a portion of 65 boys and girls formulating the Safety Patrol unit at the local school.

Such treats as collegiate athletic contests and free movie passes are provided to the group in recognition of its fine work in conducting younger children across the crowded streets and intersections and performing affiliated safety duties.

According to Neal Royer, director of the unit, the entire organization is run on a military basis. The students handle their own programs with only outside faculty supervision.

At the head of the group is a captain and two lieutenants. Captain of the Campbell unit is Pat Means with Eppie Gallego and Tony Schraub serving as lieutenants.

In addition to their safety duties, several of the girls act as part-time teachers during the congested lunch hour.

Two Buc Seniors Perform Amazing Feats In PE Test

During the past two weeks the Physical Education staff at Campbell High school conducted a battery of tests to determine the athletic and physical ability of the male student body.

Several hundred boys participated in five events; the standing broad jump, dips on the parallels, 440-yard dash, dodge run and the bar snap.

Out of this mass of contestants two seniors amassed such an amazing total of points that their feats are worth mentioning.

Richard Herven totaled 372 points and Jack Bray collected 342 points. These records are further commendable when one considers that the average score was 140 points.

Herven, a stocky, well-built lad, posted the following grades with the average score in parenthesis: dips, 20 (7); bar snaps, 7 (2) (4); dodge run, 23.2 seconds (26 sec.); 440-run, 62 sec. (70 sec.); jump, 8'10" (58").

Members of the coaching crew commented that Herven's tally in the dodge run was extremely noteworthy. Few of the PE instructors could do better than 25 sec. in the run.

Bray, lanky six-footer, outdid Herven in the dodge run, completing the course in only 22 seconds.

C's Win; D's Lose In Cage Openers

Campbell high school's lightweight basketball teams split with Lincoln high in their first practice contests of the season, last night on the Lions' home court.

The "C" squad trimmed the Lincoln five, 19 to 15. High scorer for the locals was K. Beth with six points. Other point getters were H. Shumway, 4; D. Jordan, 3; B. Pentzer, 4, and J. Sandaval, 2. Forward B. Fukana-val, though held scoreless, played an outstanding floor game for the Bucs.

Score at half-time was 8 to 5 in the Bucs' favor.

The "D" game found the boys of Campbell avenue outmanned, 32 to 7. The host squad proved ungente as they outjumped and controlled both backboards all through the game. Height was the deciding factor as the locals were forever stymied and bottled up.

Both Campbell teams travel to Hayward high Monday night to encounter Hayward's lightweights in another practice session.

Campbell Bucs Battle Mountain View Tonight In SCVAL Grid Opener

Green as they come, so far as actual game experience is concerned, the Campbell Bucs travel northward tonight to tangle with the Mt. View Indians in the SCVAL grid opener.

The Bucs split at the seams in seven different directions during the second half of their game with the Lincoln Lions of San Jose.

Score at half time was 6 to 2 with the locals trailing. As the fourth quarter mercifully closed the score registered 26 to 9 with the winner obvious.

Judging from last week's encounter, the line backers and pass defenders have much to learn. Adding more worry upon the head of Coach Jim Muir is the scouting report handed in by Junior Morgan and George Armstrong of the P.E. staff who covered the Jeff-Mt. View game.

Approximately three-fourths of the Indian attack featured pass plays, long and short ones. A word to the wise is sufficient and Muir is reacting accordingly, stressing pass defense and more pass defense during this week's scrimmage.

With the exception of two players the starting offensive team will remain unchanged. Saul Estrada, first-string end will be out for three more weeks with a dislocated shoulder. Don Lukehart has won the starting left-guard position from Ray Lervill.

Johnny Hoover, stellar flanker, sustained a slight hip pointer in the second half of Saturday's game. The injury didn't prove as serious as believed, since he will be ready for double duty tonight. Starting in Estrada's spot will be Howard Keating. He is a typical example of the greenness of Coach Muir's sophomoreish squad. Last week marked the first time Keating played in (let alone start) a varsity game. He so impressed the staff with his aggressive play that tonight bears the fruits of their convictions.

The quarterback slot still is a toss-up. Both Dave Baxter and John Perata performed satisfactorily. But Perata will get the starting signal tonight. Last week Baxter completed three out of seven passes while Perata had three for five.

Following is a brief resume of the Buc-Lion tussle: Lincoln took the kick-off and marched to the Buc 10-yard line before a fumble stopped them short of a tally. In stubborn and quick retaliation Campbell drove down to the Lion 3-yard line. But on the fourth down and goal to go McBain fumbled a pitch-out around right end.

Bob Saia's running and several passes highlighted the short-lived march. On the first play from scrimmage in the second quarter, the Lion quarterback fumbled the pass from center while standing in his end zone in punt formation. He was tackled for a safety and two points for the Bucs. Campbell 2, Lincoln 0.

The Lions immediately bounced back the first time they had the ball. Jim Unger, one of the thornier of many

Music Instruments In Unique Exhibit At Grammar School

Parents and children of the Campbell area gained some new insight into the craftsmanship that goes into the making of musical instruments after viewing a display at Campbell Grammar School Tuesday evening last week.

The display, open to the public from 7:30 to 9 p.m. was arranged by instrumental teachers Dick Gordon and Jack Barrett to introduce pupils of the district to the instrumental music program. During the day about 600 pupils from San Tomas, Moorpark and Campbell elementary schools inspected the collection of instruments.

Among items on display were a 13th century ancestor of the violin, a viola d'amore of the 17th century with 14 strings and several specimens of 19th century flutes and clarinets. One arrangement showed the steps in making a violin with contrasting examples of good and poor craftsmanship. Also on view were the instruments of a modern orchestra and band.

Two musical films, "The Great Waltz," and "The Story of Robert Schumann" were shown as part of the evening program. Rare instruments were from the collections of Alfred Lanini and John Bollander Jr.

thorns, scampered from his 23 to the Campbell 37. Sam Bruno, as good a runner as Unger in any league, tallied on the following play. The try for the extra point proved futile. Lincoln 6, Campbell 2.

to their 28. Saia again led the team to the Lincoln 48 where the attack bogged down.

The half ended with neither team threatening severely. Lincoln 6, Campbell 2.

Lincoln kicked to the locals as the second half got under way. The attack refused to click. Calabray punted to Unger who graciously fumbled on his 46-yard line. Still the Bucs were unable to penetrate the Lion defense. Calabray punted out-of-bounds on the Lion 19-yard marker.

The Lincolns then set their second TD in motion, sparked by a long pass play that found Unger being driven out-of-bounds on the Bucs' 8. Jim Houston, burly fullback, scored on the ensuing play. Kick was good. Lincoln 13, Campbell 2.

Campbell took the kick-off and got nowhere. A damaging 15-yard penalty did not exactly do them any good. Lions took over on their 48 after receiving Calabray's punt. On the next play, Bruno broke off tackle, hit the sidelines and outraced the secondary to score the 19th point of the evening. Min Ikeda converted again. Lincoln 20, Campbell 2.

After several minutes of scrimmaging, Lincoln pounded down to the Buc 2-yard line. Before another play could be called the quarter ended.

The first play of the last quarter earned the Lions another touchdown. The try for point was no good. Lincoln 26, Campbell 2.

Taking the kick-off the Bucs finally amassed a drive similar to the one they flashed early in the game. With the ball on the Lion 3-yard line and fourth down, Perata tossed a flat pass to Tom Rhodes in the end zone for the Bucs first and last TD. Conversion was good. Final score: Lincoln 26, Campbell 9.

School Asks Bids On Safety Devices For Playground

After discussion of a preliminary estimate of costs on safety devices to be placed under school playground equipment, board members of Campbell Union School District, at a meeting September 28, instructed Superintendent William C. Henley to make up specifications and secure bids on permanent, protected play areas on the school grounds.

Other business of the meeting included signing of a contract with Higgins and Root, San Jose architects, for architectural work on proposed school buildings. Board members examined several preliminary sketches presented at the meeting.

A report of the Summer Recreation Program was submitted in writing by Neal Royer, director of the program and accepted by the board. Members asked the superintendent to commend Royer for the fine report and the good job done. They also requested the superintendent to write to each of the playground supervisors commending their good work.

Also presented to the board was a graphic report of the activities of the Summer Music School by Director Richard Gordon. It was received by members with favorable comment.

One hundred thousand volunteers were organized by San Francisco's civilian defense council during the war.

sessed on a cold cash basis too. It seemed his younger brother was base umpire. Every seemingly wrong call made by the arbiter cost Milt so much more dough.

Speaking of umpires, Dave Sanders, head man of the Kiwanians' squad, is automatically fining Gene Barnes, co-publisher of this illustrious publication, a total of $1.00. Sanders claims that the umpire behind the plate was inept and lousy and that Barnes knew about him but did not warn the clan.

Personally, and with unblat-ed, unprejudiced, honest, solemn, honor-bound belief, we deem the job done by the abused umpire of the highest caliber. His talent and ability have gone unnoticed. In fact so did he go unnoticed immediately following the game.

BY THE WAY — a juicy rumor is circulating about town that a certain service club will challenge another club to a touch football game. At the moment the names of the two organizations have slipped my mind. Next week should clarify matters no end at either end.
